My Special Event 2022

Introduction

Please do not do bad things
- Disclaimer or content list 1
- Disclaimer or content list 2

More lists
- Computer science is not science 1
- Computer science is the only science that had to put science in the name
- It is probably imposter syndrome?

~~Nope~~ This is better

Premise

Can a song be a vulnerability?

- Released in 2022: CVE-2022-38392
- Read more:
  https://cve.mitre.org/cgi-bin/cvename.cgi?name=CVE-2022-38392
- ~~Repsonsible Disclosure~~

Is it fixed?

- Nope it is hardware :)
- And it is very old anyway

But we knew something already

- Screaming at servers is bad
- Specially if they use hard drives
- Bryan Cantrill showed it

Key Specs

- Description of the image
- Procedure to hack whatever
- More explanation
- Final results: STONKS!

Image with sidetext with different proportions

- Some shorter text here 2
- Some shorter text here 3
- Some shorter text here 4
- But what, else, maybe?

Root Root

- Kernel is old, some privileged binaries have multiple stack overflows
- More than one race condition
- setuid iptables is a root sentence
  - Some sub itemize here
  - –some-switch something (passwd)
  - LD_PRELOAD= is always a fun trick

Final procedure all together

1. Step 1
2. Step 2
3. Step 3
4. Step 4
5. Step 5
6. Step 6
